

SENATE.

TUESDAY, December 4, 1923.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. J. Muir, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Father, we thank Thee for another day bringing to us so much of gladness and sunshine. We ask that it may be to us a day of opportunity, of possibility, of achievement. Grant that we may serve our generation by the will of God. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PETER NORBECK, a Senator from the State of South Dakota, appeared in his seat to-day.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. President, I move that the formal reading of the Journal of yesterday's proceedings be dispensed with and that it be approved.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection to dispensing with the reading of the Journal? The Chair hears none, and the Journal stands approved.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 2 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, Wednesday, December 5, 1923, at 12 o'clock meridian.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, December 4, 1923.

The House met at 12 o'clock noon, and was called to order by the Clerk.

The Chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Father who art in Heaven—whose goodness and mercy faileth never—hallowed be Thy name. Condescend to receive our tributes of praise and thanksgiving. Let the light of Thy wisdom shine forth; let Thy power give strength to weakness and Thy love bestow the mercy of forgiveness. May Thy will be wrought in human laws, in human institutions, and especially into human lives. O Spirit of God, bless every Member of this Congress with the highest ideals of Christian statesmanship. Establish our people everywhere in the light and ways of Thy commandments and be over our country like a happy summer day—giving the promise of a newer life. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

The CLERK. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was read.

The CLERK. The Clerk is informed that the gentleman from South Carolina [Mr. DOMINICK] is erroneously recorded on roll call No. 3 on yesterday as having voted for Mr. GILLET, whereas he voted, as he states, for Mr. GARRETT. Without objection, the Journal with this correction will stand approved and the RECORD will also be corrected. The Clerk hears no objection.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Clerk, may I inquire if this is in accord with the precedents that the Journal is read and approved under conditions such as exist now?

The CLERK. The Clerk will state to the gentleman from Tennessee that the precedent seems to have been established in the Fifty-second Congress when upon the opening day the House did not organize and on the day subsequently the Journal was read and approved.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. May I inquire if it was approved before the organization on the second day or after the organization?

The CLERK. Before the organization, just preceding the vote being taken upon the election of a Speaker. And the Clerk will also state that such was the case before organization in the Thirty-fourth Congress. The question recurs upon the election of a Speaker, and the tellers will please come forward and take their places.

Before the roll is called the Clerk asks the indulgence of the House while he reads a portion of clause 7, Rule XIV, of the rules of the last House:

While the Speaker is putting a question or addressing the House no Member shall walk out of or across the Hall, nor, when a Member is speaking, pass between him and the Chair; and during the session of the House no Member shall wear his hat or remain by the Clerk's desk during the call of the roll or the counting of ballots, etc.

While this rule is persuasive only under the present circumstances, yet the Clerk invokes its spirit and requests the cooperation of the Members and employees in its application. [Applause.]

The Clerk requests all persons not officially connected with the taking of the vote to remain away from the Clerk's desk, and would suggest, respectfully, to the Members that when they desire to know whether or how they have been recorded their requests be made known in an audible tone from their accustomed places on the floor, to which the Clerk will respond. Thus Members' rights will be safeguarded, and such procedure will make for decorum and for accuracy in the taking of the vote. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the result was as follows:

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Clerk, I move that the House do now adjourn until to-morrow at 12 o'clock noon.

The motion was agreed to; and accordingly (at 2 o'clock and 30 minutes p. m.) the House adjourned until to-morrow, Wednesday, December 5, 1923, at 12 o'clock noon.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, December 5, 1923.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. J. MUIR, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O God, our times are in Thy hand. Thou dost appoint the bounds of our habitation, which we can not pass. We recognize Thy goodness in preserving our lives. Grant that they may be devoted to the highest interests of all those concerned in the welfare of our land. May the Lord Himself direct our paths, and may we find them, like the path of the just, shining more and more unto the perfect day. We ask in Jesus Christ's name. Amen.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Secretary will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

On request of Mr. LONGE, and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal was dispensed with, and it was approved.
